SCHOOL BOARD KEEPS SHEELY, FILLS 2 POSTS

Gettysburg school directors at their March meeting, Monday evening, re-elected Dr. Raymond F. Sheely school district physician, elected a new librarian at the high school to fill a position made vacant last month by a resignation, named a substitute to fill another vacancy on the high school staff and received the resignation of Miss Ruth Kitzmiller, who has served for the last year as secretary to Superintendent Lloyd C. Keefeauver but is now awaiting a call to active duty with the WAACs.

The new librarian is Miss Catherine L. Ross, now a senior at the Millersville State Teachers' college, whose home is at Camptown, Pa. Miss Ross will be released from college May 1 for her new duties, several weeks in advance of commencement. She will receive $1,200 per year, the minimum pay for high school teachers.

At graduation at Millersville Miss Ross will receive the degree of B.S. in secondary education with majors in library science and English. Two years of her college training were taken at the Mansfield State Teachers' college.

New Substitute
Superintendent Keefeauver announced that Mrs. Eva Deardorff Bower, Emmitsburg, has begun teaching as a substitute for J. M. Sheads in social studies in the high school. Sheads is on duty with the Army. Mrs. Granville Shultz who had been substituting for Mr. Sheads has resigned.

Upon recommendation of Superintendent Keefeauver, the board agreed that only Good Friday should be observed as a holiday at Easter time in order that schools may close on May 31.

The directors discussed a penny milk program that has been offered to the schools here and left the matter in the hands of Superintendent Keefeauver to be worked out as he deems best. The proposal under consideration is that the school district pay part of the cost of furnishing a half pint of milk per day to all the pupils of the three lower grades at a cost of one cent per bottle to the pupils. If all the pupils paid, directors estimated the program would cost the district about $2.30 per day. Pupils unable to pay would be furnished milk free of charge.

Monthly Reports
The roof of the Lincoln school building was reported in need of repair and directors also considered plans for painting exterior woodwork on several of the school buildings this summer.

Monthly reports were received including that of the Gettysburg National bank, school district treasurer, showing tuition payments of $2,559 and state appropriation of $11,819 boosting the total receipts for the month to $46,988. Disbursements for the month amounted to $8,585 of which $6,445 was spent for salaries. The balance in the general fund at the beginning of this month was $38,403. The sinking fund contains $3,568.

The monthly report for the high school cafeteria showed a $34.70 profit for February.

President Ralph Z. Oyer presided at the meeting with all directors in attendance excepting Charles B. Dougherty.

WAAC Outfits In Window Display

The complete outfits worn by WAACs in the service are shown in a window display set up today at The Shoe Box on Chambersburg street as part of a WAAC Week program aimed at stimulating enlistments in the WAAC in this county so that the 21-girl quota may be filled by the end of this month.

The window display includes the summer uniform of the WAAC, play suit, pajamas, gym suit, shoes, hosiery and emblems. There are enlarged snapshots of WAACs in training at Fort Des Moines and a collection of smaller views of the WAAC training center.

In connection with the window display the Auxiliary of the American Legion will conduct an information booth in The Shoe Box during store hours each afternoon and evening the display is shown.

Report County Soldier Missing

Mrs. Clara Kuhn, High street, New Oxford, received a telegram from the War department Monday evening stating that her son, Paul Louis Kuhn, has been missing in action since February 17. No details were given.

The young man, who was among the first inducted into the service from this county, joined the Army in June of 1941, and after a basic training period in this country was sent to Ireland and later to Africa. He is aged about 34 years.

USO CENTER IN GETTYSBURG TO BE CONSIDERED

Tentative plans for the re-opening of a USO center in Gettysburg as soon as a site and the necessary facilities can be arranged were made at a meeting of representatives of eight local organizations with members of the county USO executive committee, Monday evening at the YWCA building.

The group considered possible USO services in connection with three general services for soldiers—the men in training at the college, transient soldiers passing through Gettysburg with only brief stopovers, and the selectees being inducted from this county each month.

Local Cooperation
Organizations represented at the meeting included the Rotary and Lions clubs, American Legion, Business and Professional Women's club, Scorpimists, Woman's club, YWCA and the Elks.

Dean Tilberg, county USO chairman, presided and described the social program including dances, swimming parties and sports events already set up by the college for the first contingent of 275 air corps men in training there. The group agreed that local organizations could be called upon to assist with the dances or other entertainment as the need develops in the future.

A USO center in Gettysburg was discussed together with the problems of rent, heat, light, custodian, host service and location. Several sites were mentioned and Dean Tilberg began today an attempt to arrange for the opening of a center in town with some of the local USO funds to be used to meet incidental expenses.

The group also considered a proposal to furnish county selectees with some type of refreshment or memento in the square here and in New Oxford when they board buses to take them to the New Cumberland induction center at monthly intervals. Most of the members of the group expressed the opinion that there is no need for such a program now.

COLLECT TIN CANS TONIGHT

At 6 o'clock this evening the second town-wide collection of tin cans will be made in Gettysburg by local firemen. The first collection a month ago netted more than three tons of cans.

Dr. J. Walter Coleman, chairman of the Gettysburg salvage committee today asked local residents to place the cans—with the ends cut out and placed inside the cans, labels removed and the cans themselves flattened for efficient packing—in containers in front of their homes this evening. Every street in town will be covered in the collection.

The cans will be hauled to Schwartz's warehouse, Carlisle street, where later they will be loaded onto freight cars for shipment to de-tinning plants.

GIRL SCOUT PARTY
Plans for a St. Patrick's Day party and an Old Fashioned Quilting Bee, to be held next Monday night were completed Monday evening at a meeting of the Caroline Codori Girl Scout troop held in St. Francis school. The Girl Scouts will have their counsellors and former scouts as special guests at the party Monday night.

UNNAMED DONOR GIVES $500 WAR BOND TO YWCA

Presentation of a $500 War bond to the YWCA by a "close friend of Annie Danner Reinwald," whose generosity made possible the establishment of the "Y" here a number of years ago, was announced at the March meeting of the board of directors of the "Y" Monday afternoon.

The name of the donor was not disclosed.

"The $500 gift is to be added to the endowment fund which has been increased steadily by the board of directors during the last several years," Mrs. Robert Portenbaugh, board president, said after the meeting. "The donor of the War bond knew of Mrs. Reinwald's hopes for an active, financially strong YWCA in Gettysburg and she gave us the bond to help re-build our permanent endowment fund in the hope that others also may aid our cause by future gifts."

$800 In Fund
The endowment fund now contains $800, the board officers announced.

The $500 gift is separate from the annual campaign for funds that is now in progress, it was pointed out. Reports submitted at the meeting showed that the current drive total is $1,322.36.

Plans for the annual membership meeting to be held Friday evening, March 26, were announced by Mrs. Anna Plank, membership chairman. Miss Anne MacFarlane, former general secretary for the YWCA, will be the speaker. Business will be brief and an entertainment program will be presented by "Y" groups. No dinner will be held in connection with the meeting this year. All present and former "Y" members are being urged to attend the meeting which is set for 7:30 o'clock.

To Elect Directors
"Y" members are asked to go to the association building during the week preceding the meeting to cast their ballots for members of the board of directors and for next year's nominating committee whose election will be announced the evening of the annual meeting.

Mrs. A. R. Wentz, personnel chairman, announced that Miss Margaret Myers is substituting for Miss Iona Reichl, office secretary, who is teaching school in Biglerville. Miss Reichl is continuing to direct Girl Reserve activities.

Mrs. Portenbaugh named Mrs. George Larkin, Mrs. Anna Plank and Mrs. Ira Henderson to a committee to nominate officers for the board of directors. Miss Myrtle Stauffer and Miss Martha Furney were appointed auditors.

Mrs. Portenbaugh presided at the board meeting with 12 directors present. The devotions were conducted by Mrs. Norman Storrick.

The Red Cross canvassers, who have already collected what would have been a large sum for normal times, are fighting against time to finish their visits by the end of this week, despite the fact that the national drive will last throughout the month of March. Red Cross officials are hopeful that the drive will be completed, if not by the end of this week, by early next week.

Allies Hold Margin On All Fronts

"Desert Fox" Loses Fifty Of His Tanks

By WES GALLAGHER

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, March 9 (AP)—Marshal Erwin Rommel, beaten back when he attempted six assaults from the Mareth line in southern Tunisia on Saturday, has withdrawn his forces deeper into his defenses before General Bernard L. Montgomery, an Allied headquarters communique announced today.

Fifty of the Axis chieftain's tanks were destroyed or captured in the six short, fierce actions on Saturday, the communique said, raising the total from the previous figure of 33.

Take 200 Prisoners
In the northern sector the Germans also were forced to withdraw yesterday after making an attack near Tamera, seven miles west of Sedjenane, the communique said. About 200 prisoners were captured before the enemy called off his attack.

About 100 miles northwest of the Mareth line, French forces occupied Tozeur, 50 miles southwest of Gafsa, above the Chott Djerid.

Rommel, smashed back in his experiment in attacking his nemesis, the British Eighth army, was said to have pulled into the high ground about Hallour and to be continuing his retreat.

There was no indication that Montgomery was undertaking a pursuit, however, and the communique said that only patrol activity was engaged in yesterday by the Eighth army.

Aerial Pounding

The tanks abandoned by the German strategist in front of massed British guns and armor and under a heavy aerial pounding consisted of three Mark II, two Mark III, eight new type Mark III, 19 Mark II specials and 18 Mark IV specials, the communique said. The Reds say they have recaptured more than 80 towns in this region within 24 hours. Meanwhile, below Orel, in the Sevsk section, the Russians regained several more towns. The swift downward drive from Rzhev and the push below Orel brought new danger to the strong Nazi bases of Smolensk (1) and Bryansk (2).

Reds Pushing Fast Fleeing Hitler Horde

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, March 9 (AP)—The Red Army, driving west of recaptured Sychevka, the central front west of Moscow, has reached the Dnieper river northwest of the important German base of Vyazma, it was disclosed today.

A dispatch to the Communist party newspaper Pravda from this sector pointed out that Russian troops pressing hard on the heels of the Germans gave them no respite and drove to the waterway which extends from the central front down through the Ukraine past Kiev and Nieperopetrovsk to the Black sea.

The Russians were already east and northeast of Vyazma after advancing through Gzhatsk.

Threatens Vyazma

The capture of Sychevka, 35 miles north of Vyazma on the railway to Rzhev, was announced in a special communique last night, and the offensive then lashed west and southwest from Sychevka, it was indicated.

These drives fast were building a Russian arc about Vyazma, last of the German bastions to stand in the old Rzhev-Vyazma-Velikie Luki triangle.

South of this front, the Russians said they took more settlements west and south of Lgov, below Orel. In the latter area the Germans were reported throwing in troops in a series of furious counterattacks, using forces they have been apparently to shift from other fronts.

Although the Germans seem to have been able to attain numerical superiority in some sectors, no dispatches from the front have confirmed the German assertions that some of their units have stormed to within 12 miles west of Kharkov.

Menace Highway

The Russians, however, still were on the defensive southwest of Voroshilovgrad as the Germans mounted heavy attacks supported by tanks and planes, although dispatches said that the Germans had been beaten back.

It was felt here that if the Germans have been able to attain superiority in this sector of the Donets basin, where communications facilities are limited, it is not unreasonable to assume that they have been able to do the same thing to the north, where there are better transport facilities.

Red Star reported that Soviet troops now were menacing the highway southwest of Sychevka which runs to the town of Nikitinka, a third of the way between Sychevka and Smolensk, which lie 115 miles apart.

New Pipeline Gets 4 Rights Of Way

Four rights of way for the new pipe line being constructed by the Defense Plant corporation over four townships were filed Monday with the office of the Adams county register and recorder. The rights of way were granted by Harry E. and Lella E. Kunkel, and Mildred Jeanette and John Henry Newell, all of Biglerville, for lands in Franklin township and by Maude G. and George W. Stallsmith, Biglerville R. 1, and Creora H. Guise and Ruth A. Foreney, both of Gettysburg, for lands in Butler township.

R.C. WORK ROOM STARTS 7-DAY WEEK ON SUNDAY

In response to requests of women who are unable to help the Red Cross make surgical dressings on week-day afternoons, the work room in the American Legion building will be opened from 1:30 to 4:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon and will continue on a full seven-days-a-week schedule until further notice, it was announced today by Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, Red Cross production chairman.

Striving to complete the quota of 30,000 dressings assigned in December by next Monday, Mrs. Winebrenner called today for more helpers each week-day afternoon and also on Tuesday evenings. The room was opened on Saturday afternoons several weeks ago.

"There has been a steady increase in the number of volunteers since we moved into our new work quarters," Mrs. Winebrenner said today. "But we average only about 30 women a day in spite of the fact that there is work space for 40 persons. We know there must be many more women in Gettysburg who are willing and able to give a few hours at least one afternoon a week in making surgical dressings that are needed so badly by our armed forces."

Average 1,000 a Day

Mrs. Winebrenner said that the quota of 30,000 2x2 dressings which the Red Cross has asked be completed by March 15 is only about half finished. A big shipment of material covering the January quota of 9,000 4x4 and 7,200 4x8 dressings arrived here Monday and is ready for use next week.

An average of 1,000 or more dressings are finished each day by a group of women which averages about 30, Mrs. Winebrenner said. One day last week when 39 women reported, 1,600 dressings were finished in a single afternoon.

STANDLEY SAYS RUSSIA SHIELDS EXTENT OF AID

Moscow, March 9 (AP)—Admiral William H. Standley, United States ambassador to Moscow, told a press conference yesterday that the Russian people are not being informed of the extent of help they are getting from America and declared that the situation was unfair to "the plain American people who are digging down in their own pockets."

"I have carefully looked for an admission in the Russian press that they receive material aid from America," he said. "Yet I have failed to find any real acknowledgment of it. x x x"

"I find no political motive to this. It is only an effort to create the impression with their own people that they are pulling themselves through by their own bootstraps. x x x"

"Getting Plenty"

Standley pointed out that a new lend-lease bill is now before Congress in Washington and added:

"The American Congress is big-hearted and generous, but if you give it the impression that its help means nothing there might be a different story."

When it was recalled to Standley that several Russians generally had told foreign correspondents recently that they were getting no American help at the front except trucks, the ambassador said:

"They are getting plenty of other kinds of war material. If it's not at the front I don't know what they are doing with it."

Asks High Court Reverse Old Rule

Washington, March 9 (AP)—The Bill of Rights committee of the American Bar association told the Supreme court Monday that "the nation which survived Valley Forge and the dark days of the Civil war without compulsory flag salutes will not go to rack and ruin because a few children fail to participate in this ceremony on account of their religious beliefs."

In a brief filed as a "friend of the court," the committee urged the tribunal to overrule its 1940 decision holding constitutional a requirement that a Pennsylvania school district that children salute the American flag.

A new case, involving constitutionality of a similar West Virginia regulation, will be argued this week and will give the court an opportunity, if it so desires, to overrule the previous decision.

At the close of the program there will be an hour of fellowship during which time the Women's Guild will provide the usual refreshments which consists of doughnuts and coffee. All members of the congregation are urged to attend.

U.S. STRONGER IN SOLOMONS, ASSERTS KNOX

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, March 9 (AP)—Secretary of the Navy Knox said today that American forces are stronger than they ever have been in the Solomon Islands area while throughout the south Pacific the Japanese are having increasing difficulty in supplying their island bases.

Such losses of shipping strength as the Japanese suffered in the battle of the Bismarck sea and as they have had throughout the war due to American submarine attacks, Knox told a press conference, are all a part of the process of attrition which he said is "a most serious factor" in Japan's military future.

Without adequate shipping, the Secretary explained, the Japanese cannot maintain their south Pacific bases in many instances and he added in this connection that "our submarine campaign continues to be very successful."

Watch All Bases

He was asked whether it would be proper to say that the enemy is having extreme difficulty in moving supplies and replied that he would say the Japanese are having "increasing difficulty."

Meanwhile, Knox said in response to other questions, "we're growing stronger than we have ever been in the Solomons area."

He added that the United States is "not a bit" worried about the Japanese air base at Munda on New Georgia island in the central Solomons and said that the purpose of bombing it almost daily is to keep the Japs from using it to interfere with American plans.

"Every Japanese base has potentialities of danger," Knox said. "If the Japanese were to come down against the southeastern Solomons again, I suppose Munda probably would be one of the bases they would use."

The Pacific situation generally, Knox said, is "in a state of suspended animation."

Named 5th Time As Race Group Head

Louisville, Ky., March 9 (AP)—G. W. Rittenour of Picketon, Ohio, began today his fifth term as president of the United States Trotting association.

Delegates to the annual meeting re-elected him yesterday and chose Indianapolis as the site of next year's session, Feb. 8.

The membership approved changes in two rules, the first for the protection of young horses. The rule stated that no two year old trotter or pacer will be permitted to race in more than two dashes or in a contest of more than two out of three heats.

The second change, aimed at elimination of some confusion, stipulated that in elimination heats, all shall be conducted on a three-heat plan.

ROLL OF HONOR TO BE ERECTED IN SQUARE HERE

A huge "roll of honor" bearing the names of all Adams countians who are now serving in all branches of the armed forces of the nation soon will be erected in center square under the sponsorship of civic, fraternal and patriotic organizations from all sections of the county.

Plans for the big honor roll, initiated by the Gettysburg Lions club and now also sponsored locally by seven other organizations, were announced at the weekly meeting of the Lions club Monday evening by William A. Beales, president.

He said that work on the big board, which is to measure 8 x 24 feet, will start this week. The honor roll will be placed against the north wall of the Dougherty and Hartley building, facing center square. C. J. "Chic" Myers is to build the board and do the lettering.

The local sponsoring committee now includes representatives of the Lions and Rotary clubs, Eagles, Moose and Elks lodges, the Gettysburg Fire company, the American Legion and the Soroptimists.

New Member

Other service clubs in the county, lodges and other fraternal, civic and patriotic organizations in every county town are being invited to help sponsor the project by sharing in its cost, President Beales said.

Already many responses have been secured. Organizations not directly contacted but who are interested in having a part in the project are asked to contact with Mr. Beales.

Names of additional countians will be added as they enter the armed forces.

Barton H. Foth, center square, proprietor of the Adams County Novelty company here, was received as a new member of the club, Monday evening.

There was no formal program. Following the dinner and business session the clubmen were guests of Lion Sydney J. Poppay at the Majestic theatre.

ACCUSES ART COMPANY OF "DECEPTION"

Washington, March 9 (AP)—The federal Trade commission announced it had issued a complaint charging Victor Klein, trading as United Art Studios, Washington, D. C., and Benjamin and Ada Kadet, trading at Kadet Art & Frame Co., Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., with employing "false and deceptive practices to induce the purchase of photographic enlargements and frames sold by Klein."

The commission announcement of the complaint states that Klein's house-to-house salesmen "are equipped with attractive samples of colored enlargements purportedly made by United Art Studios," that enlargements offered for $2.95 are described as "oil paintings" valued at $30; that the offer is described as being made to a limited number of persons to introduce Klein's products in a community, and that United Art Studios is said by the salesmen to be "a company of high standing in Pittsburgh where it conducts a large art school."

Need Special Frame

"When a customer signs a contract to have an enlargement made," the announcement of the complaint said, "he is not informed by the salesman that the finished 'painting' will be of an unusual octagonal shape with convex surface and will require a frame of a particular type which can only be purchased from the respondent Klein. When a second salesman calls upon the customer with a rough proof of the enlargement and collects the purchase price, he then mentions the matter of the frame for the first time."

Salesmen, using methods similar to the above, have been operating in Gettysburg and Adams county for a number of years. Their suave method of flattering housewives on baby pictures have brought handsome returns in this area, according to reports.

Birth Announcements

104 Head Of Cattle Rescued From Blaze

Newtown Square, Pa., March 9 (AP)—A herd of 104 pedigreed Ayreshire cattle were saved early on Sunday when fire of unknown origin destroyed a large barn on the Delschert farms estate of Mrs. Thomas Ashton. Loss was estimated by the owner at $150,000, including $20,000 worth of milking machinery.

Farm hands drove the herd to safety just before the burning structure collapsed. Firemen from communities within 15 miles prevented spread of the flames to other buildings.

The dairy farm is one of the largest in the state, and has been used as an experimental laboratory for dairy management students at Penn State college.

"A" Card Holders Must Have Tires Checked By Mar. 31

Attention of motorists was called today to the March 31 deadline for holders of "A" books, to have their tires inspected. To avoid being caught in a last minute rush, A. G. Cooper, district OPA mileage rationing representative, urges immediate action on the part of car owners.

Reports received at the Harrisburg district OPA offices, from examiners in the field and from some of the major oil companies, indicate the majority of the motorists in this class are neglecting to have their tires checked as provided by regulations.

"When it is considered that 60% of all automobiles on the road today are operating on 'A' books, it is evident that tire inspection stations will be literally swamped at the end of this month unless the motorists act now," an OPA official said.

The deadline for holders of "B" and "C" books to register their tires was February 28.

Orange And Blue To Close Cage Season With F And M Here Wednesday Evening

FORMER LOCAL STAR TO PLAY AGAINST J-VS

Basketball will be brought to its official close locally Wednesday evening when the Gettysburg college courtmen engage Franklin and Marshall in the Eddie Plank gymnasium.

As a preliminary game the Bullets jayvees will meet Mercersburg academy at 7 o'clock.

Roger Smith, former Gettysburg college athlete, is coach of the Mercersburg quintet and has as a squad member Max Sherman, who was a member of the Gettysburg high varsity for half of the present season.

Coach "Hen" Bream's varsity will be ringing down the curtain on a season that is unparalleled for ups and downs. The Bullets started off with one of their best teams in years but injuries, illness and the draft broke up the combination which promised to make court history here.

Win 8 Games
Despite the setbacks the Bullets have turned in a commendable record. Of 16 games the Bream-men have split even and need only to turn back the Diplomats to close their season with more wins than losses.

F. and M. is likely to prove a worthy foe for Gettysburg. The Diplomats have been strong opponents for all foes and it is certain they will put on their best show here.

Wednesday's tilt will be the last major athletic contest for Gettysburg college for an indefinite period. Spring sports and football next fall have been abandoned due to the Army taking over here.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 9 (AP)—Maybe you didn't notice a little item in the papers the other day saying that Peter Manning was timed in 2:10 Pa. . . . He was 27, a ripe old age for a trotting horse. . . . Perhaps you don't even remember Peter Manning, but two decades ago he held the same place in the hearts of harness-racing fans that Greyhound holds today—a champion of champions, a holder of records—a big, well-proportioned horse with a shining light bay coat, he was a symbol of the attraction that harness racing holds for men, even city folks who couldn't hitch up a horse on a bet.

It was back in 1918 that William M. Wright of Chicago gave a two-year-old gelding, bred on his Libertyville, Ill., farm his first trial over a mile track in Milwaukee. . . . Peter Manning was timed in 2:10 then and when he went to Lexington, Ky., the next spring he was regarded as a favorite for the Kentucky Futurity. . . . Peter didn't race at Lexington, but Tommy Murphy, the famous reinsman, sent him through a time trial in 2:06 1/4 and as a result Irving Gleason of Williamsport, Pa., bought the horse and put him under Murphy's care. . . . From then until he retired, Peter Manning was virtually unbeatable. . . . He whipped the great pacer, Single G, in a match race at Hartford, Conn., in 1921, passing him with a blinding burst of speed. . . . The next year Peter lowered the world mile record from 1:58, made by Uhland, to 1:56 1/4, a record that stood until Greyhound reached 1:56 in 1937. . . . In 1925 Peter Manning went after the Harvester's two-mile record of 4:15 1/4 that had stood for 15 years and, trotting only against time, lowered it to 4:10 1/4. . . . That mark also fell to Greyhound years later.

Although William Wright had only the satisfaction that comes from breeding a champion, it was Peter Manning who caused him to establish one of the greatest horse breeding establishments, Calumet Farm. . . . After stocking the farm with the best stallions and mares available and making it one of Kentucky's show places, Wright bought Glendora Y. Peter Manning's dam, and gave her a home there as long as she lived. . . . Calumet has turned to running horses now, but it still is one of Kentucky's greatest homes of fast horses.

There's one more story, one of many, about Peter Manning, that sticks in the mind. . . . In 1929, after ten years of racing, traveling from track to track, and living in box stalls, the veteran finally was turned out in a pasture at Lawrence Shepard's Hanover Farm. . . . At first he didn't know what to do, then he started around the paddock, trotting faster and faster, until he was going at a speed he never attained on the track. . . . Tiring of that, he found a mud wallow and rolled in it, staining his glossy bay coat with mud and grass. . . . At nightfall, he refused to give up his newfound freedom, but late that night a groom made another attempt to coax the horse into the barn and Peter Manning rubbed his nose against the man's shoulder, put his head in position for the halter and docilely walked to his stall.

Peter Manning is dead, and horse lovers will regret his passing. . . . But, after all, he must have had a pretty good life for a horse.

Greg Rice Gains Another Record
Washington, March 9 (AP)—Greg Rice, a barrel-chested little guy who finishes a distance race stronger than he starts it, tucked away another world mark today.

Rice covered two and a half miles in 11 minutes, 23.3 seconds last night in the feature event of the 10th annual Catholic university track meet—bettering his own record for the grueling distance by 9.3 seconds.

Fordham won the team competition with 13 points, Villanova was second with 12, Pennsylvania third with eight and Columbia and Penn State each registered five.

REMAIN UNBEATEN
Philadelphia, March 9 (AP)—Northeast high's gymnastic team finished its fifth season undefeated yesterday by whipping John Bartman high.

INTERSTATE BB LOOP WILL RUN WITH SIX CLUBS
Philadelphia, March 9 (AP)—The Class B Interstate baseball league will be a six-club circuit again this year, but there's still a possibility that Lancaster, Pa., may hand over its franchise to Reading, Pa., or York, Pa.

After league officials adopted a 140-game, six team schedule beginning May 11 and closing September 14, league sources said yesterday that the Lancaster Red Roses had been unable to make a satisfactory deal for the rental of Stumpf park, the team's home diamond for several years. If an agreement isn't reached, it was said, a transfer of the franchise again will be considered.

Cub Bid Withdrawn
President Arthur H. Ehlers of Baltimore had announced earlier that a plan to add both Reading and York to the circuit, making an eight-team league, had been abandoned. The Chicago Cubs made a bid for a Reading franchise several weeks ago but later withdrew it.

Ehlers also disclosed that he has three holdover umpires—Johnny Gillespie, former Villanova athlete; Henry Tater, Trenton, and Eddie Brominski, one-time Columbia football star—and must appoint three more.

Officials divided the league into a western section, comprising Lancaster, Harrisburg, Pa., and Hagerstown, Md., and an eastern section comprising Allentown, Pa., Wilmington, Del., and Trenton, N. J., and announced that selected teams from the two divisions will play an all-star game Aug. 9 at Wilmington.

3-Game Series
Previously the club in first place on July 31 played a selected team representing other clubs in the all-star encounter.

On opening day, Trenton will open a three-game series at Allentown, Wilmington at Lancaster, and Hagerstown at Harrisburg. On May 14, the same teams will meet in openers at Trenton, Wilmington and Hagerstown.

W. Clifford Case, Trenton president, announced extension of the club's agreement with the Philadelphia Phillies for another year and it also was disclosed that Fred Dorman succeeds Herb Brett as Wilmington manager. Oren Sterling, Hagerstown owner, said he released Dorman but had not named his successor.

LOOKING AROUND

By DON BREAM
Sports Editor

Setting records is becoming a habit with the Gettysburg high school cage teams. In winning their third straight South Penn league championship the Maroons became the first school to win three consecutive titles in the circuit.

Coach George Forney has now won the league title five times in his 11-year term as Maroon coach. In 1933 Gettysburg copped the honors and lost to Lancaster in a PIAA playoff at York. Two years later the Maroons won their second league championship only to lose a district game to Steelton at Carlisle. Their five championships give the Gettysburg lads the distinction of more league titles than any other team.

Gettysburg also became the first Southern Pennsylvania entry to win district honors in 1941 and repeated last year.

Coach "Vic" Emanuel, William Penn high mentor, who scouted the Maroons at Shippensburg last Friday night, is reported to have said following the game he "didn't see much." It is true the Forney-men have played better games than the one against Mechanicsburg and if they can hit their top form against the Tigers the former Gettysburg college star may see plenty. For the last two years William Penn and Gettysburg have clashed for the District 3 diadem and in both instances the Tigers were pre-game favorites only to see their hopes blasted by the underdogs. In 1941 the Maroons won 37-34 and last year decisively crushed William Penn 55-42 after the Tigers had been undefeated in 21 games. Let's hope history repeats itself this week!

Roger Smith has turned in a fine job as coach of the Mercersburg academy basketball team. Smith, who graduated from Gettysburg college last spring, finished the 1942 term as coach at Littlestown high school. Last fall he was elected to coach at Mercersburg and his cagers are undefeated in eight games. Max Sherman, who formerly starred with Gettysburg high, has gained a position on the Mercersburg varsity squad. Mercersburg meets the Bullets jayvees here Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Larkin, a Garfield, New Jersey, boy with an amazing string of victories, took the first round by a shade, using his obvious height advantage to put across a number of long left jabs and an occasional right.

But in the second round he dropped his guard for a brief instant, and Armstrong flashed in a right that spun the New Jersey boy around. A swift left hooked him and he sprawled on the canvas for the full count. His handlers had to drag him to his corner.

Thus Armstrong regained some measure of prestige to atone for his defeat by decision by Willie Joyce of Chicago at Los Angeles last week, his second loss in 16 bouts. Armstrong's handlers said that one shouldn't have counted, anyway, because their boy had not fully recovered from a tonsil operation. As it was, he broke Joyce's jaw.

Henry Armstrong Wins By Knockout
Philadelphia, March 9 (AP)—Henry Armstrong, who knocked out Tippy Larkin of Garfield, New Jersey, at San Francisco last night, will make the first eastern appearance of his current comeback campaign in Convention Hall here March 22, tackling tough Al Tribuni of Wilmington, Del., in a 10-round bout.

Promoter Herman Taylor also booked Al (Bummy) Davis of New York to meet Manuel Rosa, of Baltimore, in a 10-rounder on the same program.

2-Punch Knockout
Larkin, a Garfield, New Jersey, boy with an amazing string of victories, took the first round by a shade, using his obvious height advantage to put across a number of long left jabs and an occasional right.

But in the second round he dropped his guard for a brief instant, and Armstrong flashed in a right that spun the New Jersey boy around. A swift left hooked him and he sprawled on the canvas for the full count. His handlers had to drag him to his corner.

Thus Armstrong regained some measure of prestige to atone for his defeat by decision by Willie Joyce of Chicago at Los Angeles last week, his second loss in 16 bouts. Armstrong's handlers said that one shouldn't have counted, anyway, because their boy had not fully recovered from a tonsil operation. As it was, he broke Joyce's jaw.

LARKIN BOWS TO ARMSTRONG

San Francisco, March 9 (AP)—Game little Henry Armstrong is over another tough hurdle on a determined campaign to regain his manifold ring glories, and the way he polished off Tippy Larkin in less than two rounds last night brought to mind his knock 'em out days of old.

Armstrong set the stage for his April 2 bout with the sensational Beau Jack in New York by knocking out Larkin in one minute and nine seconds of the second round in their scheduled 10-round scrap before some 8,900 fans in the Civic auditorium.

An Evening Thought

The most enthusiastic man in a cause is rarely chosen as a leader.—A. Helms.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

THE FUTURE

Perhaps we stay-at-homes may not

Be here the happier world to see.

It may not ever be our lot

To live from fear and danger free,

But though from earth we may be gone

We fight for those who follow on.

And this it is that holds us fast

And keeps us wishing, night and day.

That all we have of strength will last

Until that hour for which we pray.

This hope, when we have conquered hate

Our victory will not come to late.

The little girls and boys at play

Who follow us all innocent!

Theirs is the world we guard today.

For them our bravest lives are spent.

Theirs is the richer life to be.

We've pledged our all to guarantee.

What if we shall not know the sky

And of those fustilages grim?

We see a laughing lad go by

With all his years in front of him

And thus we dare, with all our powers,

To save his age the shame of ours.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

TO HIMSELF BE TRUE

Too many of us are trying to be somebody else! The interesting person is the one who uses his own equipment—and secretly glories in the fact.

There isn't a human being living who does not have something distinctive and original about himself.

Our frames are similar, but the substance of us is what counts in preserving the picture of us to the world.

Just be yourself and you will not only be unique in a large way, but you will be an honest expression of a human being.

I know a bootblack who interests me every time he shines my shoes.

He is intelligent, painstaking, and alert. I often go out of my way to patronize him, for I know that I get the best "shine" to be had, as well as coming in contact with a man who takes pride in his work and is happy in what he does. I know many of his customers who go to him for the same reason as I do.

I admire the man or woman who will stand on his or her own feet and not be stampeded by every whim of fact or fashion. I like the one who will dress to fit his personality and not to please a tailor. I like the one who will refuse to do the things that other people do—just because he honors his own sense of independent right. And who doesn't? It is a mistake that the "different" person outcasts himself. He creates a separate world! And usually that world is greatly envied.

Carry your enthusiasms along with you. Never mind what other people think of them. They are yours. And remember that your thinking machine is the most individual affair that you own. Do your own thinking! Be proud of your ideas if they please you and make you feel honest and comfortable. Even though many of them may be wrong, keep them as property—until they prove themselves worthless.

Be yourself to the utmost! "To thine own self be true, and it must follow, as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: Warmth Glow.

AXIS DEFEAT IN AFRICA CERTAIN
DESPITE POWER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Marshal Rommel's ill-fated assault on General Montgomery's British Eighth Army in front of the Axis fortified Mareth line represents an effort on the part of the Nazi "Fox of the Desert" to upset his arch enemy's preparations for another offensive, and it's quite in the cards that the Nazi leader may strike again.It's significant that Montgomery's skill and strength still stay with him. That's more than luck. Rommel is one of the smartest generals of the day, but for the past six months he's been giving best thought to the Cromwellian-faced Briton who expressed the view to me not long ago in the Libyan desert that his adversary was a great soldier.Face Divisions
This fresh Axis reversal emphasizes the growing difficulties of the German defensive problem in the last narrow strip of Northern Africa remaining to Hitler. The forces under Rommel in the south and General Von Arnim in the far north are in danger of being divided, or of getting caught in the huge Allied lemon-squeezer, with no escape except into the Mediterranean.Montgomery, having routed Rommel at El Alamein in Egypt and driven the German pell-mell along the winding coastal road clear to Tunisia, is threatening aggressively from the south. British, American and French forces are pushing in from the west.That Axis front will be smashed in due course. The Allies have suffered reverses, but nothing of a major nature. We might have hoped for better luck, and at the same time been warranted in expecting some worse.Prepared Positions
It mustn't be overlooked that the Axis is holding prepared positions with perhaps a quarter of a million troops. Those positions have been thoroughly organized for defense.
The Mareth line, back of which Rommel is sitting, is particularly powerful.Then, too, while the United Nations forces are handicapped by extended lines of communication, northern Tunisia is the land nearest Sicily. Men and supplies have been moving across this narrow stretch of sea to Von Arnim and Rommel.
By the same token, the airdromes of Sicily are so close that German warplanes can readily fly from there against the Allies.All that sounds pretty formidable, and it is. It's doubly so because the Allies are the attacking party and have this initial disad-vantage.London Vicinity Raided By GermansLondon, March 9 (AP)—German raiders dropped high explosive bombs in the home counties surrounding London and in southern and southeastern England Monday, but early authoritative reports said only a small number of casualties had been reported.The Berlin radio reported that British planes flew over Helgoland last night without dropping bombs and later the Vichy radio said targets in France were attacked, but there was no immediate confirmation of these reports here.It was authoritatively reported that three of the German planes which raided England shortly after midnight were destroyed.An alert in London, the second within a week, lasted about 30 minutes, but only one plane was reported to have flown over the city. Anti-aircraft batteries opened fire immediately.

YES, IT WOULD BE—

Seattle, Wash. (AP)—The Seattle Advertising and Sales club has rented a night club for a ball, March 15—the income tax deadline.It's to be a taxation celebration, said Chairman James Lunke and a special invitation has gone to Secretary Morgenthau.
"We thought it would be a special treat for him to see people smile at the mention of taxation."

HUSH-HUSH

Chanute Field, Ill. (AP)—Hitler's spies won't learn anything from this soldier: He was being transferred from the Army Air Force technical training command school here. Going to the squadron orderly room to pick up his service record, he encountered the non-commissioned officer in charge, who asked where he was being sent.
"I can't tell you. It's a military secret," the soldier said.The non-com finally convinced him it was okay, so the soldier whispered the information.PROVIDE EXTRA FOOD COUPONSWashington, March 9 (AP)—Victory gardeners may buy without ration coupons dry peas and beans for planting seed, the Office of Price Administration said Monday.The OPA explained that local ration boards have power to authorize such purchases without coupons.Other points made in response to inquiries from the public were:
Extra coupons for babies or sick persons, blind, or crippled persons can be obtained from local boards on presentation of doctors' certificates.Soldiers or other servicemen having seven or more days furlough can obtain temporary ration books by bringing furlough papers to a ration board. If the furlough is less than seven days, no rations are provided.For special occasions, such as a church supper, ration coupons may be obtained from local boards.Persons who are unable to shop at frequent intervals may exchange their coupons at local boards for certificates authorizing purchase of more than one month's supplies at a time.Persons living in boarding houses do not have to turn their ration books over to the house unless 50 or more people eat there regularly.
In smaller houses, residents are expected to pool their individual rations, but keep complete control of their books.Consumer stocks of 700 million pounds of soap on January 1 proved that hoarding can be done too enthusiastically.

PARKER'S NAME WITHDRAWN AS PUC NOMINEEHarrisburg, March 9 (AP)—Governor Martin's withdrawal of the nomination of Dr. Frank Parker for membership on the Public Utility Commission today ended a three-week Senate controversy over confirmation of the University of Pennsylvania professor.Parker himself proposed the withdrawal after his qualifications had been challenged by Senators Elmer J. Holland (D-Allegheny) and H.
Jerome Jaspas (D-Phila.). Martin told the Senate "I can only comply" with Parker's request. The chamber immediately returned the nomination.

May Bar Beamish

The governor picked the professor to replace democratic commissioner Richard J. Beamish whose term expires March 31. Authoritative sources say talk of a new appointee centers around Ralph Linn, Philadelphia insurance man, and Harold Scruggs of Wilkes-Barre, former Lackawanna county district attorney.Coincidentally with the recall, Senator M. Harvey Taylor (R-Dauphin) moved to prevent Beamish from continuing in office in the event a successor is not appointed or confirmed. The state GOP chairman introduced a bill to bar utility commissioners from serving after their terms expire.Senator Holland had asserted that Parker served as a paid witness for utilities in rate cases.
Jaspas demanded a legislative inquiry into his record. A Senate committee, however, decided to report the nomination favorably.

Resents Attacks

Parker wrote the governor:
"It has been my belief that both my private and public activities were of such a character that my nomination could not possibly make me the subject of the type of malicious and partisan attack which I have subjected since its submission.""Acceptance of the office under the existing circumstances would destroy the personal satisfaction which would have come to me in the service of the commonwealth.""For the past 30 years, my activities as a member of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania and in collateral affairs largely in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania have been a matter of public knowledge."

SWOPE THANKS RATION BOARD

Guy J. Swope, OPA district manager at Harrisburg, has sent his thanks and "sincere appreciation" to all of the members of the staff which handled the registration of Adams counties for War Ration Book 2 last month.

Today the county and local rationing board members added their thanks "to the school officials and school teachers and to the volunteers for their splendid cooperation without which such a registration would have been an impossible task."

Dr. H. C. Alleman, chairman of the local war price and rationing board, and D. P. McPherson, Jr., chairman of the Adams county rationing board, have received the following letter from Mr. Swope:

"It is difficult to express the satisfaction that the Harrisburg District Office enjoys as a result of the splendid efforts and accomplishments of your organization in the registration and issuance of War Book II, last week.

"I wish you would express to your Food Chairman and all members of your staff, who participated in this undertaking, our sincere appreciation for their loyal and tireless efforts.

"This unselfish aid you extended in this registration, which has contributed greatly to the war effort and your country's future, cannot be commended too highly."

equipped with 75-millimeter cannon.

In the air fighter-bombers and fighters encountered a large formation of Axis planes and shot down 17 of them, the communique said.

(A broadcast by a CBS correspondent from North Africa said 50 planes were in the Axis formation and that Flying Fortresses shot down 10 of them and Lightning fighters shot down seven.)

Two Allied aircraft are missing from yesterday's operations, it was announced.

Flying Fortresses escorted by Lightnings engaged a combined force of 30 Messerschmitt 109's, Focke-Wulf 190's and Junkers 88's in a 30-minute battle over the Sicilian Straits and the Fortresses accounted for 10 of the German fighters while the Lightnings got seven, a military spokesman said.

In addition, the Fortresses observed two more Axis planes collided in the air.

HOME TAGGED

Another case of scarlet fever was quarantined on Monday afternoon by William I. Shields, the county health officer. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernie J. Criswell, Gettysburg R. 4, was tagged because of the illness of a son, Horace, aged 19 years.

Isolation Island

By JOHN C. FLEMING
and LOIS EBY

Chapter 7

In the dark shadows of her high vaulted bedroom with only two braces of candles flickering in the darkness Landa had slipped into her flame colored robe and thrown herself down on her chaise.

All was quiet except for the light breeze that stirred in the foliage outside her window and the distant pounding of the surf on the beach. Landa heard the slamming of the screen door and the low rumble of men's voices from the living room. The papaya buyers, Don and O'Shannesey had been over the entire island since early morning.

Landa rose quickly, brushed her hair, and slipped into her dress. As she entered the living room a moment later the soft candlelight caught her loveliness.

She smiled at the circle of men as they rose to their feet. They toasted her health and happiness with the wine Maria had already served them. Then Landa took Don's arm and they led the way to the dining room.

The long table was laden with food heaped in polished copper dishes that glinted like gold in the light of the candles. When they were seated Landa turned toward McCullough at her left.

"What do you think of our plantation?"

The buyer's face broke into a smile. "It's the likeliest supply of papaya we've found in Baja."

"We have never taken more than we needed for a comfortable living," Don said in way of explanation. "Eighty per cent of the trees have never been touched."

"It's a veritable buyer's paradise," Brown smiled.

"I sure wish I owned it!" McCullough said feelingly. "Why with the profit you take off this place in the next sixty days I could buy myself a swell farm in Ohio and live the life of Riley for the rest of my days!"

No one had noticed the dark cloud of disapproval that passed over the face of Mike O'Shannesey but all eyes turned at the heavy rumble of his voice. "The point is," he said, carefully weighing each word, "we are not interested in turning this peaceful island into a congested commercial venture."

There was a brief silence before McCullough recovered and found his voice. "You seem to misunderstand, my good man. Personal desires are being put in cold storage all over the world now for the duration. We are making acids, medulla from papaya to fill government orders. You can make a handsome profit, and still be of real service to your country."

"You forget I am Irish," the old man said acidly, "and my country has had sense enough to stay out of this war!"

"The sympathies of the Irish are certainly with the Allies!" McCullough contested.

"Ah yes, that is all right for those who have stayed in the homeland but here it is different. The war does not touch us here," the man said stubbornly.

"You might be surprised how quickly this distant jewel of yours would be taken away from you if the Axis should win," McCullough argued hotly. "Haven't you read what's become of the property in conquered France, in Belgium, Holland and Norway?"

"I know nothing of that and care less," O'Shannesey roared. "We take no papers here for that reason. They are full of just such riddle duddle!"

Small creases of concern crept into Landa's smooth forehead. She had never seen O'Shannesey so ruffled, so ungallant to a stranger.

The group finished their meal in silence as Maria shuffled about busily carrying out dishes, bringing in more heaping plates of food. Her dark eyes darted from face to face as she sensed the tension that hung over the diners.

Suddenly O'Shannesey pushed back his chair with a heavy scraping on the tile floor and stormed from the room. They heard the screen door slam as he went out into the garden. Don's face flushed.

"I hope you gentlemen will excuse my padre. He is old, you know, and has been under such strain these last few days."

"It's my fault," McCullough said apologetically. "I should have known better than to irritate him."

"If you will excuse me I will go and see if I can't calm him." Don pushed back his chair. "Don't hurry with your meal. I'll join you later in the patio for coffee."

As Don came out of the door he saw his father walking slowly in the path of yellow moonlight that flooded the garden.

"Padre," Don said gently. "You must not take these Americans' offer as an affront. They are our friends! They believe they are helping us."

O'Shannesey stopped short and turned a thunderous frown on his son.

"They are no friends of mine!" he roared. "I have run this place for forty years without their help. Why should I need them now?"

"But we have something here that they can use—that the world can use. Why should we not sell it to them at a fair price?"

"You are forcing me to say this," the old Irishman's voice rang out. "I hoped it wouldn't be necessary. If you make one step in negotiating with these men, by heaven, I shall consider it my duty to expose your crime!"

"You can't mean that . . ." Don's voice was incredulous.

"I mean exactly that and more too. Landa is soon to be your wife. She will do what you say. You must advise her not to sell a bit of her papaya to those men in there!"

"But if she wants to sell," Don pleaded, "I don't see how I would have any right to stop her!"

"Her father left a sizeable estate. She needs no money, and it is up to you to see that she does not sell!"

Don's face went white. He knew now it was settled. His father never turned back when once he had made a decision. The two men

New York, March 9 (AP)—Inasmuch as Jack Benny's illness, which took him off the air Sunday, has turned out to be a mild case of pneumonia, his physicians have told him to stay away from broadcasting at least until April 4. That will include the two-week mid-season vacation he had planned. As soon as he is able to travel, he and his wife, Mary Livingston, plan to go to Arizona for a time before returning to Hollywood. Benny's illness came at the conclusion of a 12,000-tour of service camps in the eastern half of the country and in Canada, which he preceded by a similar tour on the west coast. The substitute for Benny next Sunday has not been picked, but Orson Welles will handle the programs for March 21 and 28.

SHAPIRO EARNS DRAW DESPITE 9-COUNT BLOW

Philadelphia, March 9 (AP)—Maxie Shapiro, A 3 to 1 underdog from New York, got up from a nine-count knockdown and put on a whirlwind finish that earned him a 10-round draw against Philadelphia's Johnny Hutchinson at the arena last night.

Shapiro's finish was so strong that many of the crowd of 6,629 thought he had won.

It was the second straight draw between the two. As in their first bout Hutchinson had one round—the sixth—taken away from him because of low punches. Referee Bel-off had previously warned Hutchinson about low blows in the second.

The knockdown came unexpectedly in the fifth. Hutchinson threw a right that landed on Shapiro's left eye. The New Yorker went down on one knee. He stayed there, rubbing his eye, until Beloff called nine. Shapiro appeared hurt because of Hutchinson's low blows in the sixth, but rallied to open a cut over the negro's right eye in the eighth. From there on it was all Shapiro.

$15,949 Gate

The gross gate was announced as $15,949. Hutchinson weighed 132½, Shapiro 163½.

Billy Speary, 135 1/5, of Nanticoke, Pa., former national 118-pound A.A.U. champion, lost to Ike Williams, 133½, of Trenton, N. J., on a technical knockout in the second round of their scheduled 10-round preliminary. Speary had taken a nine count in the first round. The referee stopped the fight when Williams opened a cut over his eye.

Lou Brooks, 186½, Wilmington, Del., exploded on Herbie Marshall, 176, New York, in the ten-round semi-final semi-windup to win

Little Rock, Ark., March 9 (AP)—The Arkansas House apparently doesn't see eye to eye with the Senate on the proposal to spend $12,000 a year "to lift Arkansas' name to the heights of athletic glory."

By voice vote the lower chamber voted yesterday to postpone action indefinitely on a Senate resolution suggesting that University of Arkansas trustees employ a "name coach" at an annual salary of $12,000.

Great Lakes, Ill., March 9 (AP)—Great Lakes' basketball team is improving with age. Last year, in the World War II rebirth of athletic activity at the Naval Training Station, the sailor cagers won 31 out of 36 games. This year they took 34 out of 37. The only hitch was—they lost their final game last night and missed a chance to wind up with 25 straight victories.

Notre Dame stopped the sailors in the finale, 44-42 in an overtime. The only other teams to beat Great Lakes this season were Illinois and Northwestern.

Laramie, Wyo., March 9 (AP)—Coach E. V. Shelton's hurried scouting trip to Omaha to see Creighton defeat Kansas wasn't a total bust. He enjoyed the game, he said.

He'd thought, though, that one of the two teams might meet his Wyoming Cowboys, Mountain Five champions, in the N.C.A.A. Western tournament at Kansas City March 26-27.

But Creighton decided not to enter; and Kansas' team was disbanded by Army inductions.

PHILS ACQUIRE BABE DAHLGREN FOR 2 PLAYERS

By TED MEIER

Philadelphia, March 9 (AP)—The Phillies in their first "big deal" under the new regime of Bill Cox and Bucky Harris today traded infielder Al Glosop and outfielder Lloyd Waner to the Brooklyn Dodgers for first baseman Ellsworth (Babe) Dahlgren.

"It was a straight trade, with no cash involved," declared Cox, youthful 33-year-old president. "I think it's a peach of a deal. It's our first and I hope there will be more."

Cox and Harris visited Branch Rickey, head of the Dodgers, at Brooklyn over the week-end. The trade was arranged yesterday, Cox said, but he and Rickey agreed not to announce anything until today.

Both Clubs Gamble

Asked whether the deal was made contingent on Dahlgren playing, Cox replied: "No, we took the gamble. We have every reason to believe that Dahlgren will play. For that matter Brooklyn took two gambles."

He referred to the fact that Glosop and the veteran Waner had not signed the contracts sent to them by ex-President, Gerry Nugent before he resigned.

In acquiring Dahlgren, who gained fame with the New York Yankees as successor to Lou Gehrig, the Phillies get a combination first and third baseman who always hit well on the team's home diamond, Shibe park.

"I can play Dahlgren at either first or third," Harris said. "Right now it looks like he may start at third with Levy on first, Danny Murtaugh on second and Bobby Bragan at short. Of course that setup is subject to change any minute."

Washington, March 9 (AP)—A wage dispute between the Frick company, Waynesboro, Pa., and International and Foundry Workers union (AFL), has been certified to the War Labor board, Secretary of Labor Perkins announced.

THE RECORD SINCE PEARL HARBOR

For the Armed Forces—More than one million and a half service men have received, through the Field Staff, practical help in personal problems. The Red Cross is with them in training and at the front. For morale and recreation, over one hundred Red Cross Clubs have been established for overseas troops. There are more than five thousand workers in the field.

Civilian Relief—About sixty million dollars in war relief has been administered in every allied country. Food, clothing, medicinal supplies have gone to Great Britain, Russia, China, Africa for Polish and Greek refugees, and many others.

Thousands of packages to prisoners of war have been safely delivered through cooperation with the International Red Cross in Switzerland.

The Home Front—Training our people to meet the needs of war. Millions of First Aid Courses. Hundreds of thousands trained in Home Nursing and Nutrition Courses. Thousands enlisted as Nurses' Aides and in Motor and Canteen and Staff Assistant Corps.

More than one million and a half blood donations through Red Cross collection centers and the distribution of the life saving Plasma wherever needed.

Chapter Production rooms from coast-to-coast providing surgical dressings for the wounded, kit bags for the fighters and tons of clothing for relief.

The Red Cross record in this war is one that we Americans may well be proud of—and support.
